

Life

Reflections by Sister Michelle Martin

Life is a story... Every day we wake up unknowing what our day will bring. We thank God for yet another day and for his mercy. We're tested throughout the day with many obstacles, but at the end of the day... what story was told about your life that can enhance another?